

Students' Feedback on Curriculum Design and Review (2021)

Stream

391 responses

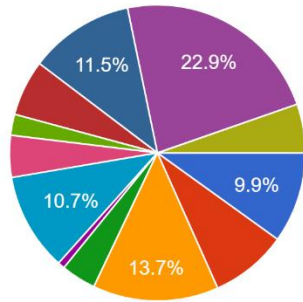

Choose Your Subject (Arts)

258 responses

Choose Your Subject (Science)

131 responses

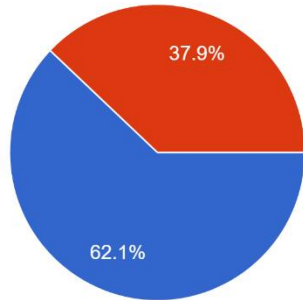

- Physics Honours
- Chemistry Honours
- Mathematics Honours
- Computer Science Honours
- Economics Honours
- Zoology Honours
- Botany Honours
- Physiology Honours
- Nutrition Honours
- Geography Honours
- Science Programme
- MSc in Botany
- MSc in Mathematics

▲ 1/2 ▼

▲ 2/2 ▼

Choose your subject (Commerce)

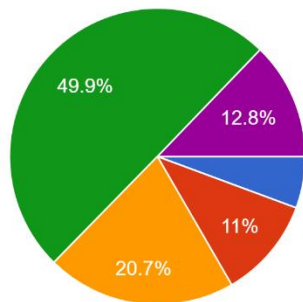

29 responses

- B.Com Hons (Accountancy)
- B.Com Pass

1. Online courses are convenient, flexible and bring education right to your home.

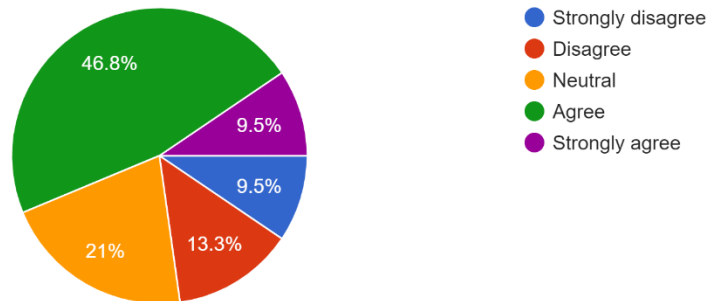

391 responses

- Strongly disagree
- Disagree
- Neutral
- Agree
- Strongly agree

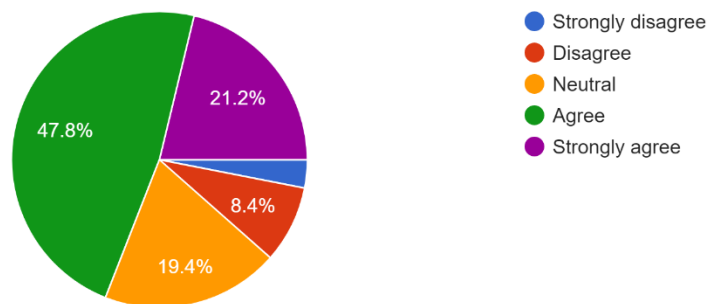

2. Switching from traditional classroom learning to online learning makes the learning experience difficult.

391 responses

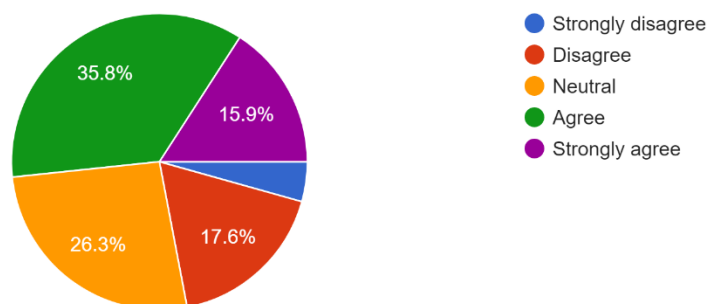

3. The lack of computer literacy and adequate internet access facilities are major issues for students today.

391 responses

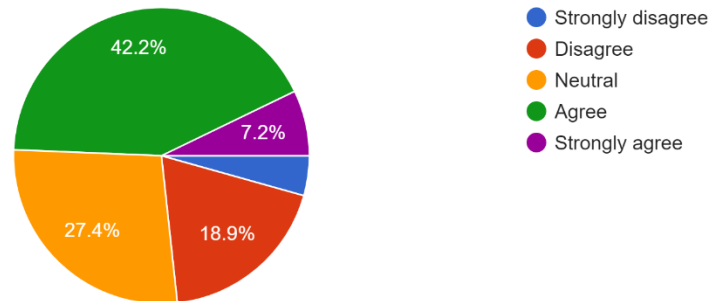

4. Assignments, projects, and lectures demand an excessive amount of screen-time, leading to various health problems.

391 responses

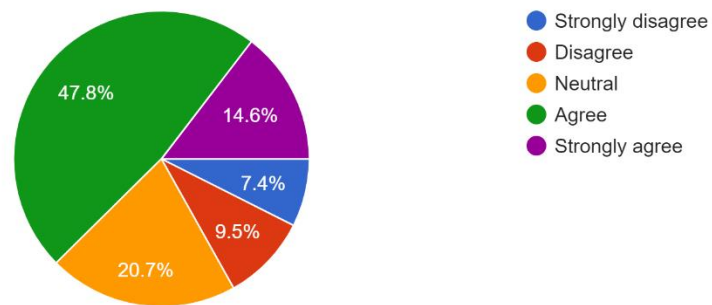

5. Many students find it difficult to handle the stress and greater workload of e-learning, leading to frequent mood changes and aggressive behaviour.

391 responses

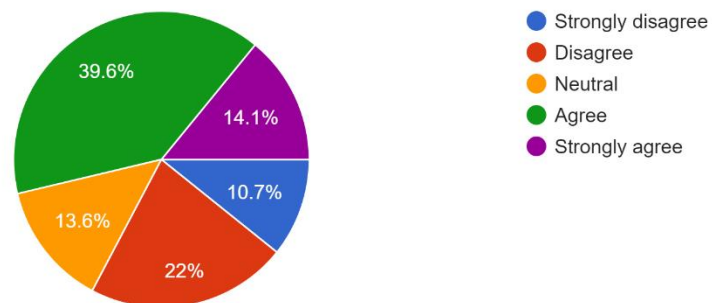

6. Flexible class hours for online teaching are advantageous

391 responses

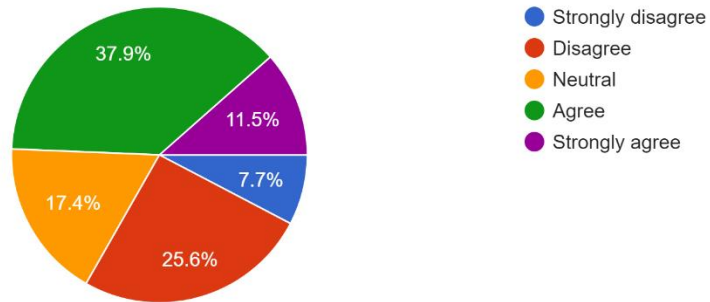

7. Teacher-student interaction is poor in the online mode of teaching-learning.

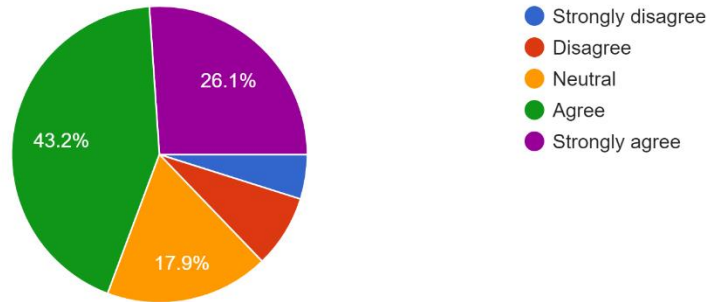

391 responses

8. Availability of study material is not a problem in the online learning system.
391 responses

9. Comprehending practical-oriented topics through online mode is a major problem
391 responses

10. Complete coverage of the syllabus through online mode is not satisfactory
391 responses

