7.1.9 Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens (within 500 words).

Response:

The College addresses various social and environmental issues and faculties of every department involve to make the students aware and trained in this regard. To properly sensitize the learners and supplement their knowledge about gender equality, human rights, environmental issues, there are specific committees such as the Woman Cell, Prevention of Sexual Harassment Cell, Electoral Literacy Club, NSS Unit.etc.

Gender Sensitivity:

Focus on gender sensitivity is one of the important curricula of different departments like Philosophy, Political Science, Geography & English. Women Cell promotes gender equality through different programmes. Self-defence training camp has been organized by Women Cell & Prevention of Sexual harassment Cell.

Human Values:

The significance of human values are imparted through courses in the syllabus of the UG & PG Departments.

Professional Ethics:

There is also Code of Conduct for both students and staff, displayed on college website and prospectus. The college also advocates fair practice in examination, sports, in our daily college life etc. and NCC helps to spread professional ethics.

Cleaning the Campus :

The students (especially the NSS volunteers) regularly participate in campus-cleaning programmes, where the college grounds and common spaces are cleared of waste and properly disposed of.

Extension Activities:

The college is committed to interaction with the local community. Students are encouraged to take part in extension activities such as teaching in local schools so that the pupils in the school benefit from what the college students have learned in college and transmitted to them. NSS volunteers organize camps in villages every year.

Electoral Literacy Club:

The Electoral Literacy Club aims to spread awareness among college stakeholders. It organizes seminars, Quiz etc. on related issues. The college observes Constitution Day on 26th November every year to make the students and other stakeholders aware of the importance of the Constitution of India. The institution observes Rashtriya Ekta Divas on 31st October.
