NOTICE

This is to inform all stakeholders of Ramananda College (faculty members, non-teaching staff, and students) that all teaching activities will be conducted in online mode from 11 June 2026 to 20 June 2026 due to the prevailing severe heat wave. During this period:

- Concerned teachers must remain present on campus on the dates of practical examinations, for IQAC requirements, or when required by the administrative office.
- The college office will remain operative in offline mode as usual.
- Heads of Departments are requested to prepare a provisional routine for the above period or, alternatively, continue with the existing routine.
- All pre-fixed meetings of different subcommittees will be held as per schedule in online mode. Meeting links will be shared in due course.

All faculty, staff, and students are advised to take necessary precautions, stay hydrated, and follow any further instructions issued by the college administration.
